September Meeting

Lindsay was kind enough to send me this report and picture on September's meeting since Alex and I couldn't be there. Thanks so much, Lindsay!

Tak Shimazu did a fabulous demo and lecture on grafted Shimpaku on a California Juniper and also different sealers from Japan.. Lindsay was the lucky winner of the Demo tree. Congratulations, Lindsay!

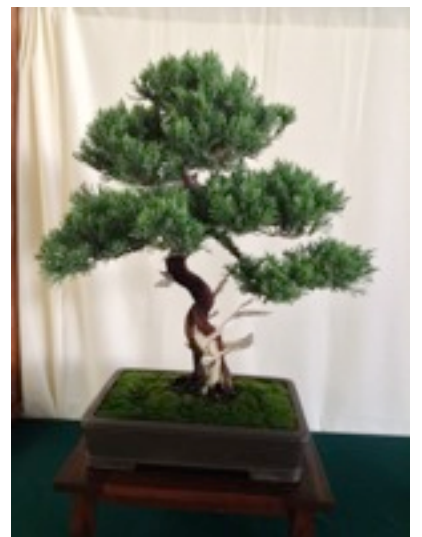

Also, a great big thank you to Tak Shimazu. Sorry we had to miss your Demo/Lecture, Tak.

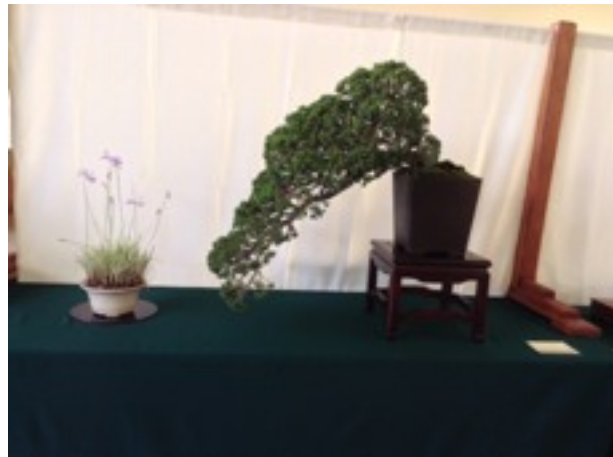

We did make it back for the Kofu Bonsai Kai's Bonsai Fest at the Bower's Museum. What a great exhibit! Here are a few pictures for those who could not attend. Please see next page.

Cookie/Snack Sign-up list for our October 23 meeting.

Veronica Raymond, Lindsay and Debbie Shiba, Mary Ann Schebeck, Alex and Hedy Marien
Thank you for signing up.

Have you moved?

Please let us know if you have changed your address, phone number or email address.

The North Carolina Arboretum

The North Carolina Arboretum is a 434 acre public garden that is surrounded by the beautiful Southern Appalachian mountains.

It houses a permanent Bonsai exhibit in their Bonsai Exhibition Garden. There are over 100 bonsais displayed in the permanent collection and these plants have been either donated or started from seedlings, cuttings, or plants that have been collected from the Arboretum landscape.

Some of the bonsais are of the traditional Japanese Maples and Chinese Elm and then there are the ones that are native to the Blue Ridge Regions like American Hornbeam and Eastern White Pine.

The Bonsai Exhibition Garden opened to the public in October 2005 and since 1996 has hosted the Carolina Bonsai Expo every year.

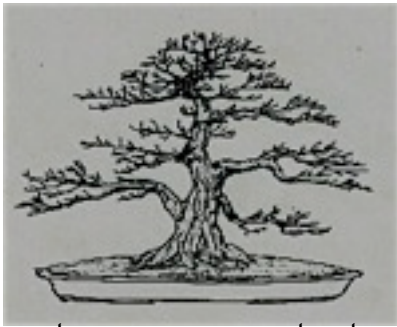

Ben Oki, Jim Barrett and Kathy Shaner are among the well known artists that have visited the Arboretum.
