In lieu of a Christmas Party at Lindsay and Debbie's house, we had a Zoom Bingo evening. Jeo led us on a mad number searching/matching game of computer Bingo. It was pretty intense.

Winners were Lindsay, Debbie, Caroline, John, Michael Jonas, and Tom. They each won $25 gift cards.

The Baikoen Team for the virtual 57th Winter Silhouette Show and Auction, Lindsay Shiba, Tom Lau, Joe Galgoul, Greg Kathol, John Kim and Shirley Quan, have worked long and hard to plan these events. We hope you will enjoy the shows.

The 57th Winter Silhouette Show will premiere at 12 noon on February 6, 2021. To celebrate this big event, we will have a WATCH PARTY on Zoom on Saturday February 6, 2021 at 11:30am. Keep your microphone and camera on so we can all enjoy and hear your comments together. Most virtual bonsai shows are static, meaning a series of single photo, but Tom has planned an entertaining show mixing up photos of trees with commentary with the owner about the trees and techniques, plus Lindsay has added an explanation and reasoning of why and how the placement of the trees with the accent plant, and the relationship between each other. Plus, Lindsay personally arranged each display, selecting the right stand and accent plant. How much more special could this be for us?

We had a field trip to Ed and Linda Clark's Round Valley Nursery in Lindsay on December 23. A quick fast trip for some beautiful trees. There were about 10 people that went.
